Spirit Thrives

The Spirit was high and Mariner fever was catching! Mariners have a lot of pride and spirit for their school, and spirit week is one time that they really show it! All one could see on hat day were baby bonnets, sombreros and all kinds of crazy hats!

Sports Spark Spirit

Students at Marine City High School participate in many different sports. Some plan to continue their athletics into college, while others just participate for the thrill of victory. The Mariners must work hard in practice to excel at their particular sport. Even though minor frustrations might set them back, the Marine City teams still come through.

The coaches also play a major role in the programs. They must work hard to prepare the athletes for competition.

These people make the Mariner teams winners.

3. Making another layup is senior Cheryl Recor.
4. Bumping from the back row is junior LeAnn Zwemg.
5. Senior Todd Haehnle breaks through the opponents defensive line for a first down.

Enthusiasm Explodes

Homecoming is one of the best times of the year. Even making the floats is fun. Everyone's participation in spirit week really starts things off. The crowning of the court is the beginning of the assembly. The traditional cheerleader's skit is always a laugh. Soon the class contests begin and all one can hear is the cheering of the crowds for their class to win. The cheering never stops! It goes right on in to the football game! But the fun isn't over yet! The dance tops everything off!!

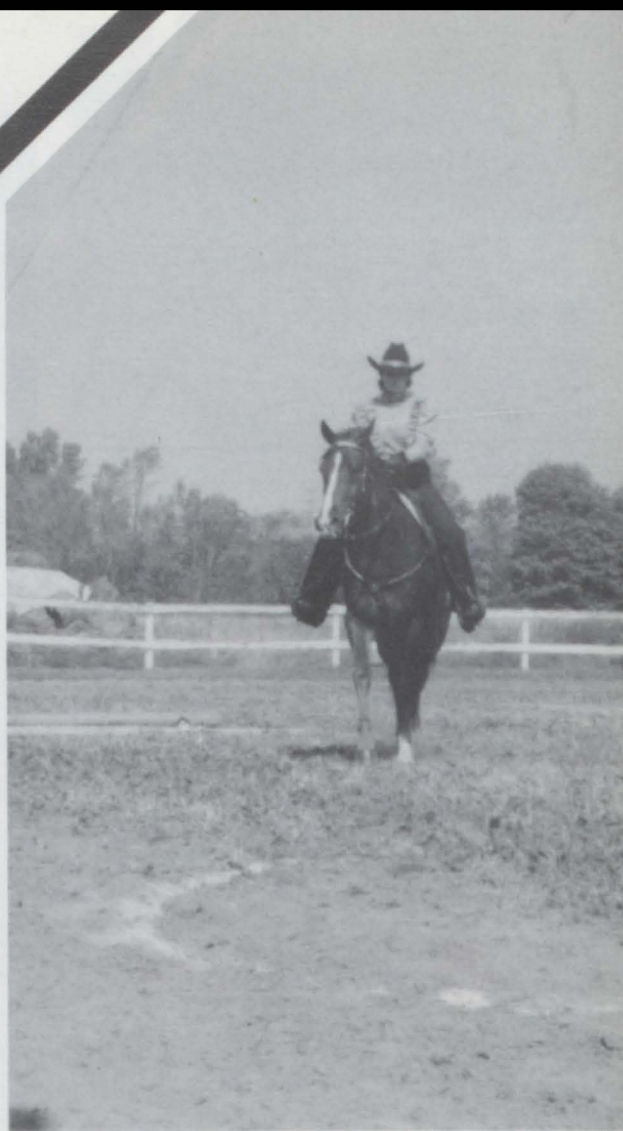

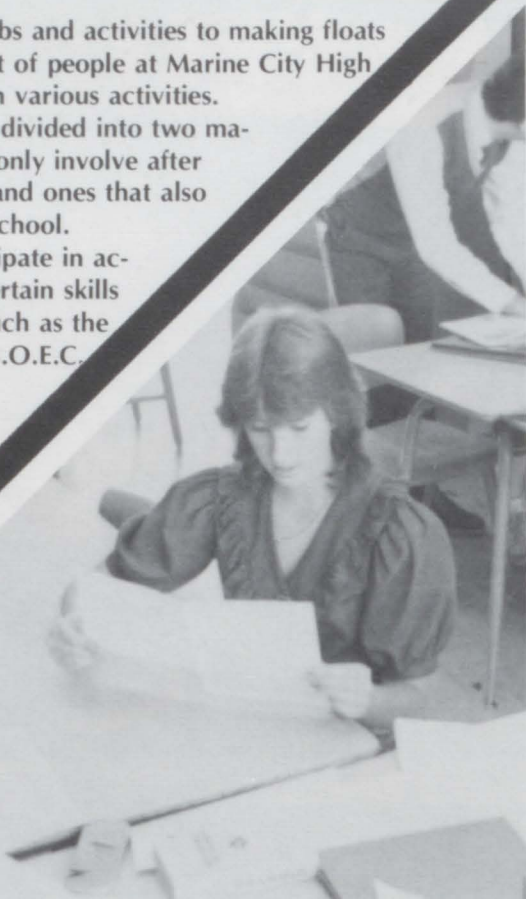

Mariners Keep Busy

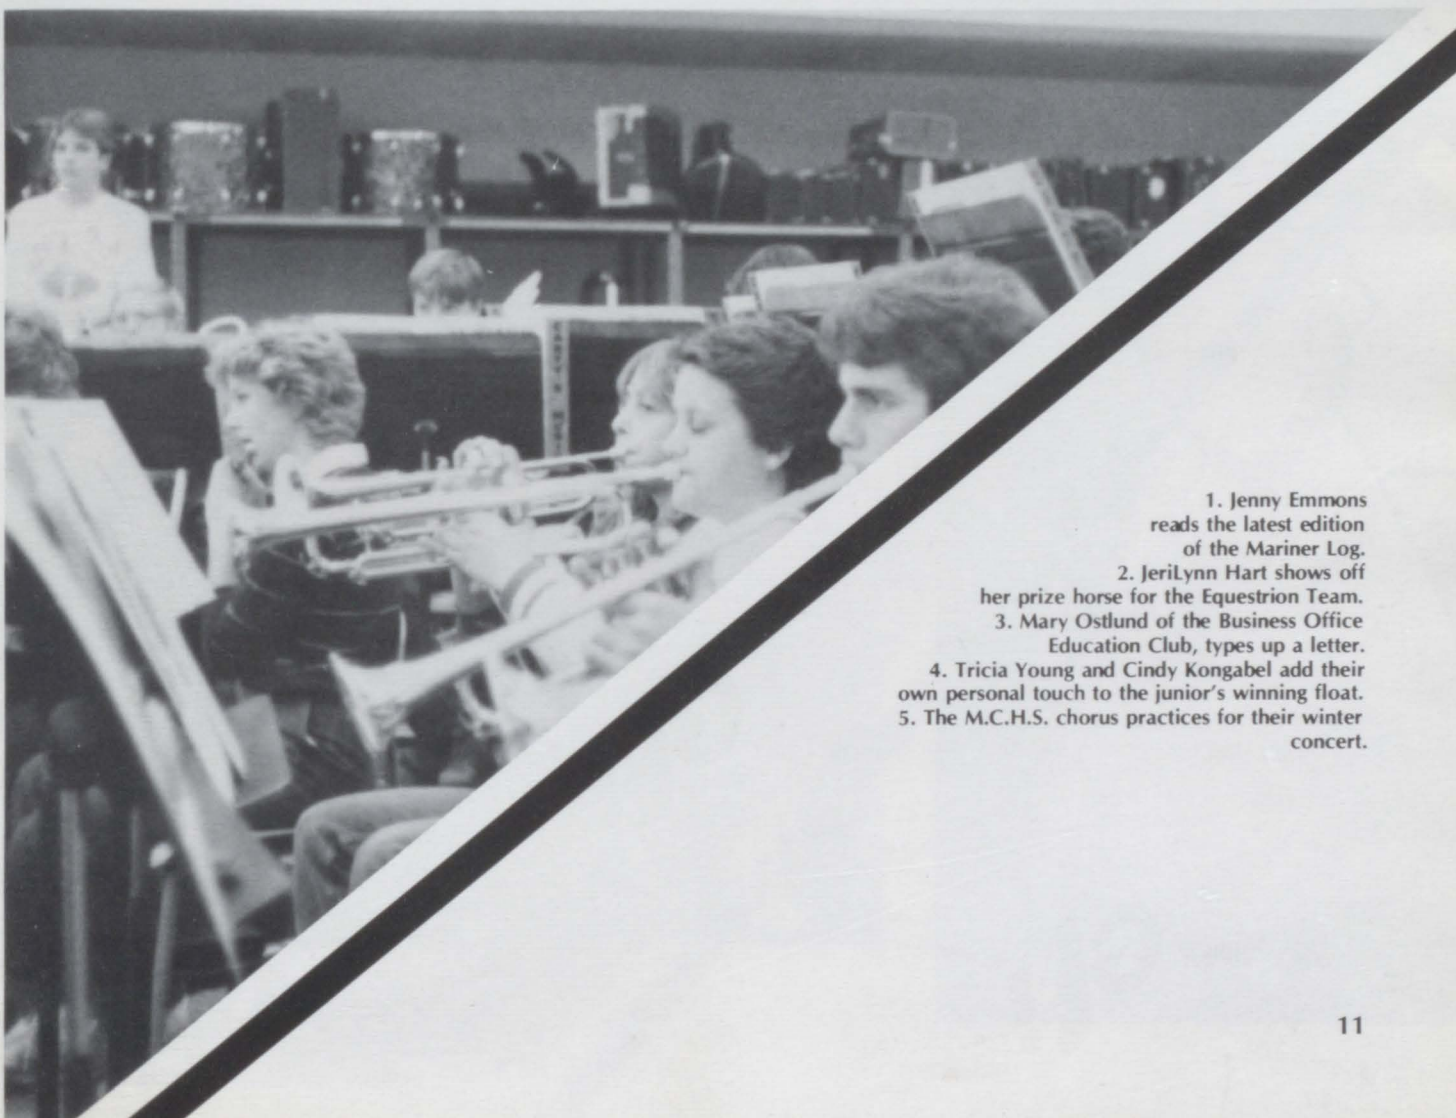

From organized clubs and activities to making floats for homecoming, a lot of people at Marine City High School are involved in various activities.

These activities are divided into two major groups: ones that only involve after school participation, and ones that also involve work during school.

Students can participate in activities that involve certain skills they might possess, such as the Equestrian Team, or B.O.E.C.

All of these activities help the Mariners get involved.

1. Jenny Emmons reads the latest edition of the Mariner Log.
2. JeriLynn Hart shows off her prize horse for the Equestrian Team.
3. Mary Ostlund of the Business Office Education Club, types up a letter.
4. Tricia Young and Cindy Kongabel add their own personal touch to the junior's winning float.
5. The M.C.H.S. chorus practices for their winter concert.

Seniors Soar

The senior year started quickly with measuring for graduation caps and gowns. Next the seniors voted for announcements. Seniors also chose class song, color, motto, and flower. Keeping busy with the Homecoming game and dance, the prom, and the exciting FLORIDA trip over spring vacation, the seniors were suddenly faced with graduation. This was a year that the seniors will never forget!

5. Jane Berry and Sherri Fuller show what Toga Day is all about.
6. Nancy Vanslambrouck, Cheryl Recor, and other senior fans cheer on the varsity game.

Mariners Gain Gusto

The underclassmen at MCHS have experienced the exciting Homecoming, the thrilling games, the torture of homework, and the pride of being a Mariner.

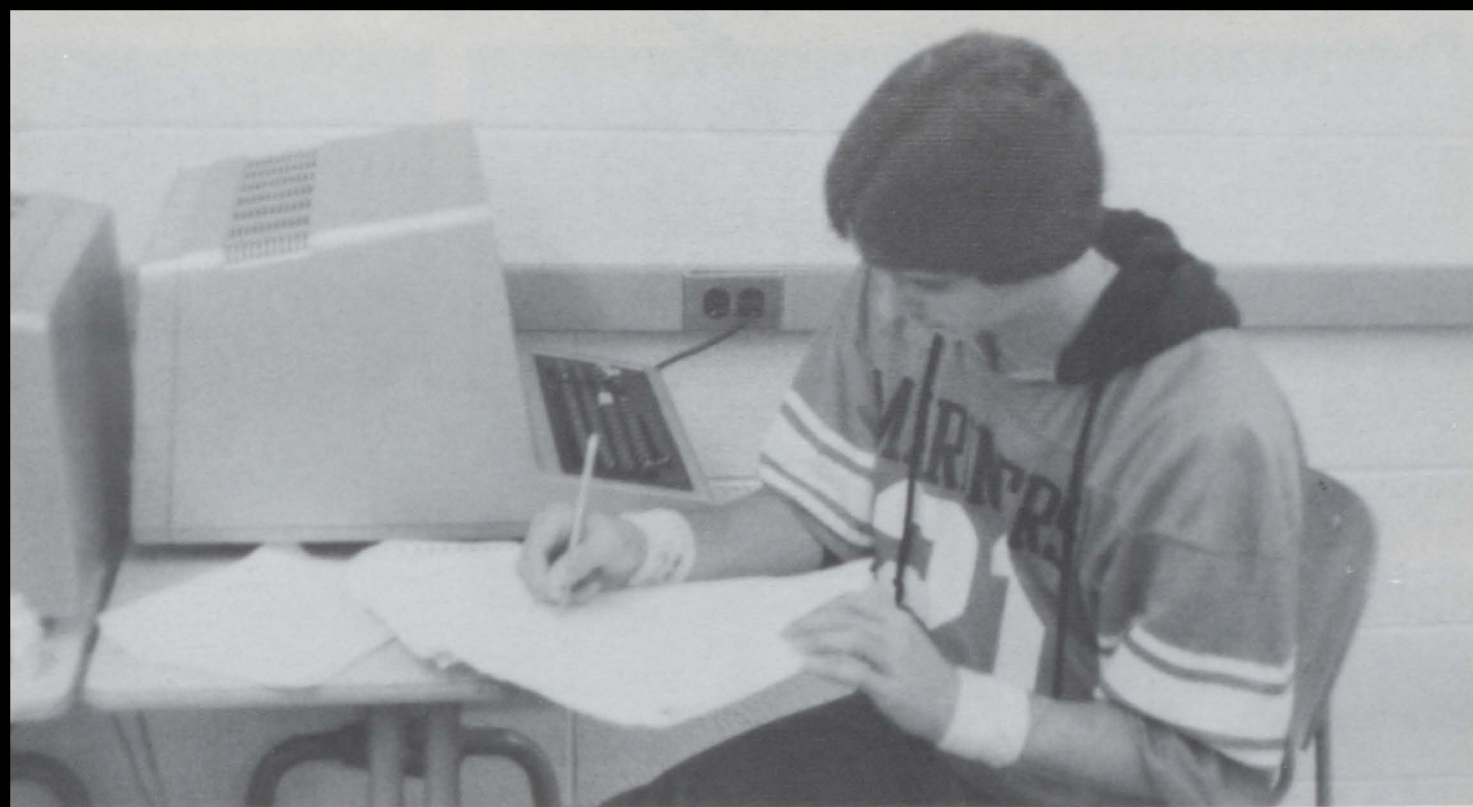

Throughout the year, the underclassmen were involved in sports, chorus, skill center, foreign languages, and other school activities. These activities helped the underclassmen achieve fun and excitement throughout the Mariner year.

Dreams Come True

Everyone remembers having childhood dreams of becoming a prince or a princess, residing in a castle, and living "happily ever after" This year those fairytales began to come true for the special people in our 1983 Homecoming Court.

The Court members reigned proudly the assembly, game, and Homecoming dance. The Week ended much too quickly for all, but we can be sure that it won't be soon forgotten.

The Educators

There is a very special group of people here at MCHS who we call the educators on their way up with better materials and the best courses offered here since MCHS started over $\frac{1}{2}$ a century ago. Some of the new additions to our curriculum this year were Advanced Computer Programming, Advanced Science, and French II. But our educators do more than just give us the facts. They are very dedicated people who devote each day to prepare us for our future lives outside of Marine City High School.

1. Mrs. Ann Westrick sums up this weeks M and M sales.
2. Mrs. Donna Faucher practices using the Xerox machine.
3. Helping with attendance is Mrs. Carol Joyner.
4. Mr. Stanley Wiinikainen smiles wickedly as he assigns detention to Bill Brazell.
5. Ordering more medical supplies for the school is one of the jobs of nurse Mrs. Joyce Winnikainen.
6. Mr. Robert Bolla demonstrates his M.C.H.S. spirit.

Office Keeps Students In Line

For a school to run smoothly one needs an efficient office staff like the one at M.C.H.S.

Mr. Bolla, principal, has many duties such as organizing parent teacher conferences, helping teachers with daily problems, and taking care of serious student problems.

The ladies in the office Mrs. Westrick, the bookkeeper; Mrs. Faucher, an administrative aide; and Mrs. Joyner, Mr. Bolla's secretary, all perform various duties. Including fourth Friday count, keeping track of financial accounts, and maintaining attendance.

Mr. Wiinikainen, assistant principal, is in charge of attendance, assigning detention, and taking care of truancy. He is also the athletic director.

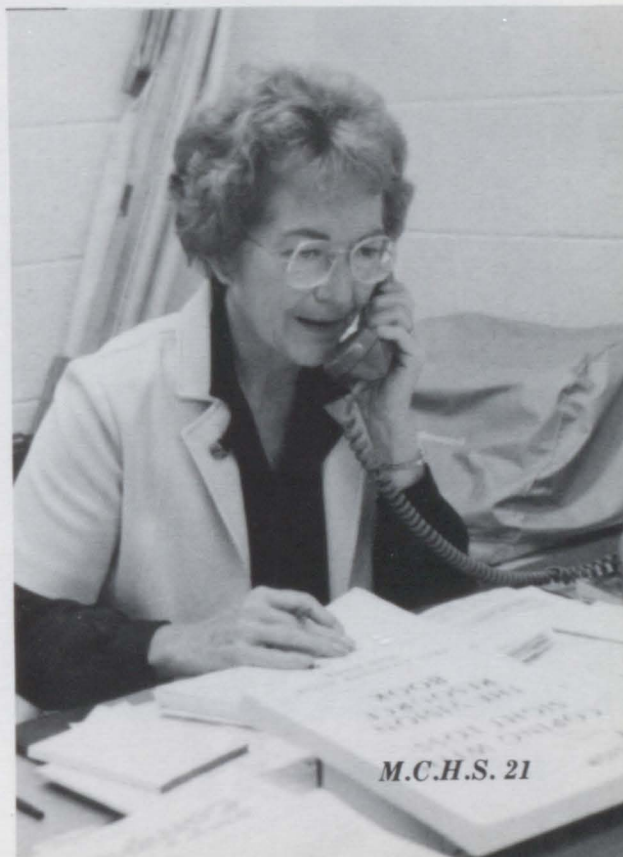

Mrs. Wiinikainen has a great responsibility as school nurse. She is the nurse for all of East China Schools, and also in charge of all immunization records for every school.

Business Guides Your Future

1. Thinking hard about a new bulletin board is Miss Kathryn Kimmet.
2. Smiling as usual to brighten our day is Miss Sondra Cawrse.
3. Taking attendance in shorthand class is Mrs. Patricia Bieybuck.
4. Mrs. Joyce Warner dictates the daily assignment.
5. Checking on a students credits is Mr. Dave Scheel.
6. "Liabilities, credit, assets, debt", are taught by Mrs. Colleen Webb.

"Hey Mariners confused about your future, looking for a college, or maybe thinking about joining the service?" The people to talk to are our counselors, Mrs. Kimmet and Mr. Scheel.

Business courses are very important to a schools curriculum either to fulfill credits or maybe fulfill a future job. There are many classes students can take such as Mrs. Bieybuck's and Mrs. Cawrse's typing classes. In addition to typing, Mrs. Cawrse teaches Business English. Mrs. Webb's accounting class would also be a good choice for a course. She also teaches business law. After a student has worked his way through the basic business classes, he can now take Mrs. Warner's office block class.

The role of teaching proper writing and speaking skills belongs to the English department.

Mr. Harvey teaches Western Literature, Advanced Composition, and Novels. He believes that an English teacher should read. In Western Literature selections from Ancient Greece to Modern America are studied.

A very busy man, Mr. Cavis, teaches Literature and Composition and Communication Skills. He also serves as Yearbook Advisor. Yearbook is a technical class that builds the M.C.H.S. yearbook.

Because she is so enthusiastic, students really enjoy Mrs. Christy's classes. She teaches Novels and American Literature. In Novels, students read and discuss a variety of books including To Kill A Mockingbird and Water-ship Down.

M.C.H.S. has a new teacher this year, the resource teacher Mrs. Karasinski. She provides help for students who have special needs.

Students who are interested in exploring another language and learning Foreign cultures have the opportunity to take French and Spanish. These two classes are taught by Miss Gustavasin and Mrs. Hermansen.

English Classes Challenge the Mind

1. Mr. Anthony Cavis gets caught by the camera discussing classification of sentences by form.
2. Going over the short story "Death Valley Earns Its Name" is Mrs. Nancy Christy.
3. As Matt Lomerson thinks about his answer, Mrs. Lorraine Karasinski glances him a smile.
4. Miss Katherine Gustavison is happy that everyone is present in today's class.
5. Mrs. Jane Hermansen explains Spanish pronouns, to Jennifer Hanes.
6. Taking a break from The Great Gatsby, Mr. Gary Harvey is amused by the class's question.

One of the new additions to M.C.H.S. science staff is Mr. Depa. He taught at Dominican High School, a catholic girls school before coming to M.C.H.S. Presently he teaches chemistry and physics, and computer literacy.

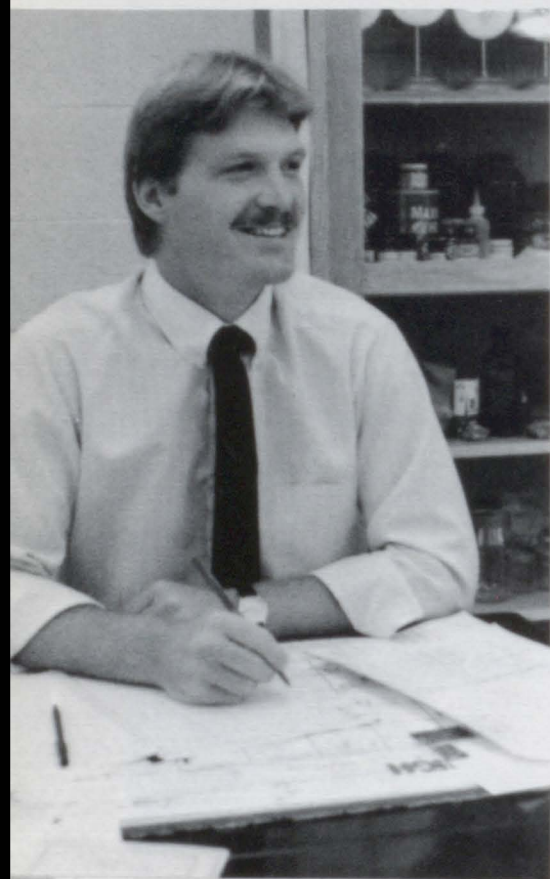

Mr. Carlson a graduate of Kalamazoo College is now teaching life science and biology to M.C.H.S. students. In his spare time he coaches the freshman football and basketball teams. Mrs. Weins' science classes dissect animals, and do experiments to answer questions students have concerning life.

Mr. Warkentien and Mrs. Ralston teach all sorts of activities in gym including: volleyball, basketball and floor hockey. In addition general swimming and physical conditioning are available for students.

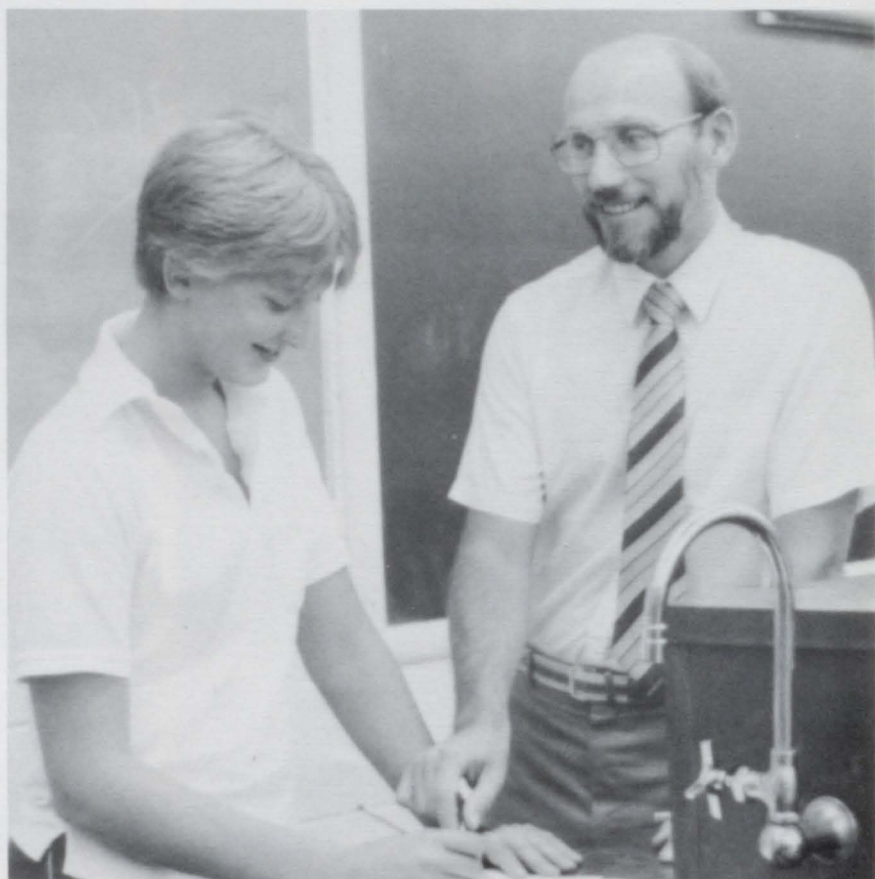

A new computer club and the computer lab are only two of the AV jobs media center specialist Mrs. Green performs.

1. Trying to organize the books in the library is Mrs. Jewell Green.
2. Mr. Gerald Warkentien demonstrates to Lisa Horn the correct way to lift weights.
3. Mrs. Maryanne Weins points to the nucleus of a plant cell.
4. Taking time from averaging grades, Mr. Tim Carlson gives his class a look of approval.
5. Russ Bassett is asked by Mr. John Depa why his homework assignment isn't finished.
6. Jeff Osterland, Niles Boulter and Jim Salmon try to keep afloat in Mrs. Margaret Ralston's swimming class.

From high school concerts to half-time football shows, Miss Bastian teaches students music for all occasions.

Mrs. Bastian and Mrs. Schneider have combined their efforts to make a larger program. The band and chorus frequently perform together, at graduations, honors convocations, and both winter and spring concerts.

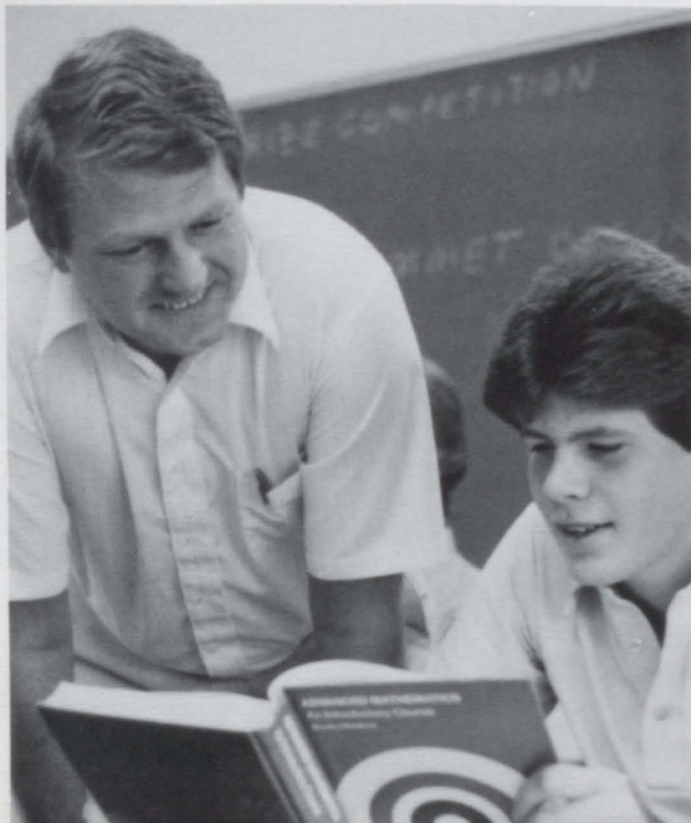

The students at M.C.H.S. are very fortunate to have such a highly skilled math team. Mr. Gunderson teaches Adv. Math and Calculus. Mrs. Burmann besides teaching the popular computer class also teaches the new applied geometry. Some students venture to the Junior High to learn algebra from Mr. Saunders. Geometry and algebra 2 are two of the math classes available from Mrs. Drews.

Marching From Numbers To Notes

1. Practicing for a concert is Miss Linda Schneider and her class.
2. Lisa Currier and Mrs. Penelope Burman are laughing at the results of the computer.
3. Asking a question to Mrs. Beverly Drews is Tim Watson.
4. Miss Jean Bastian tries to explain a few of the instruments to the students.
5. Mr. Alan Saunders expresses that he likes the class's answer.
6. Showing Greg Schulte how to do circle trigonometry is Mr. Gene Gunderson.

The history teachers at M.C.H.S. keep the students interested in the world. If a student may want to know about Christopher Columbus, he just asks a history teacher.

Mr. Chamberlain teaches the government and world history classes. He deals mostly with seniors. In government students learn voting procedures, and facts about state and local government. After studying election procedures, the students actually vote on a machine.

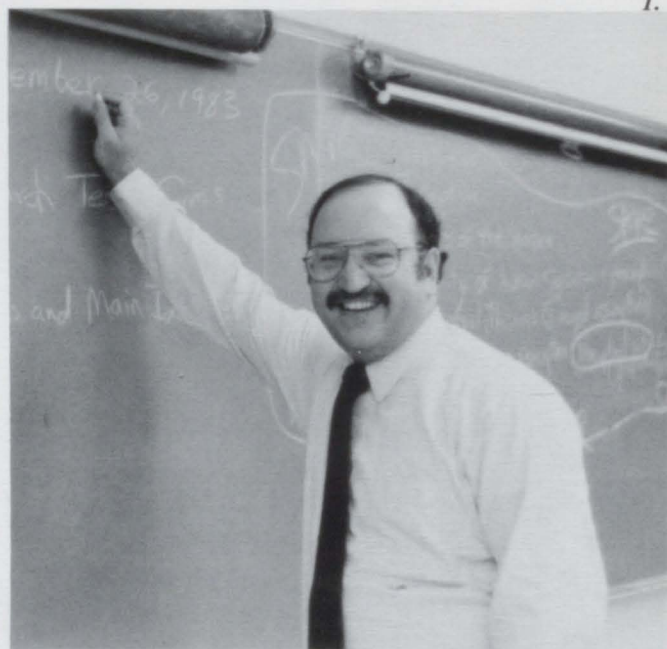

Students at M.C.H.S. are required to pass an American History class. Mr. Homberg and Mr. Shoemaker both teach American History. They help students understand why America is what it is today. The different cultures and backgrounds of America are also explored.

Human behavior is considered Psychology. Students interested in Psychology go to see Mr. Pasuqantonio. In the class they do experiments to show how humans behave.

Some busy people at M.C.H.S. are the Custodians. They work during the regular school year as well as during vacation times. When the Mariners are in school, these workers take care of day maintenance. While school is closed, major repairs and renovations are accomplished.

2. Mr. Dave Green and Mr. Ray Shackett take the time to clean the halls.
3. Mr. Don Chamberlain takes time from class to pose for the camera.
4. Mr. Paul Shoemaker explains to the class the American Revolution.
5. Reviewing the days questions, Mr. Gerald Pasquantonio, writes the answers on the board.
6. Relaxing for a few minutes are the night time custodians: Mr. Art Grabowski, Mr. Rick Furtah, Mrs. Donna Wiswell, Mr. Bob Duetsch, and Mr. Jim Grabowski.

Serving Up Creativity

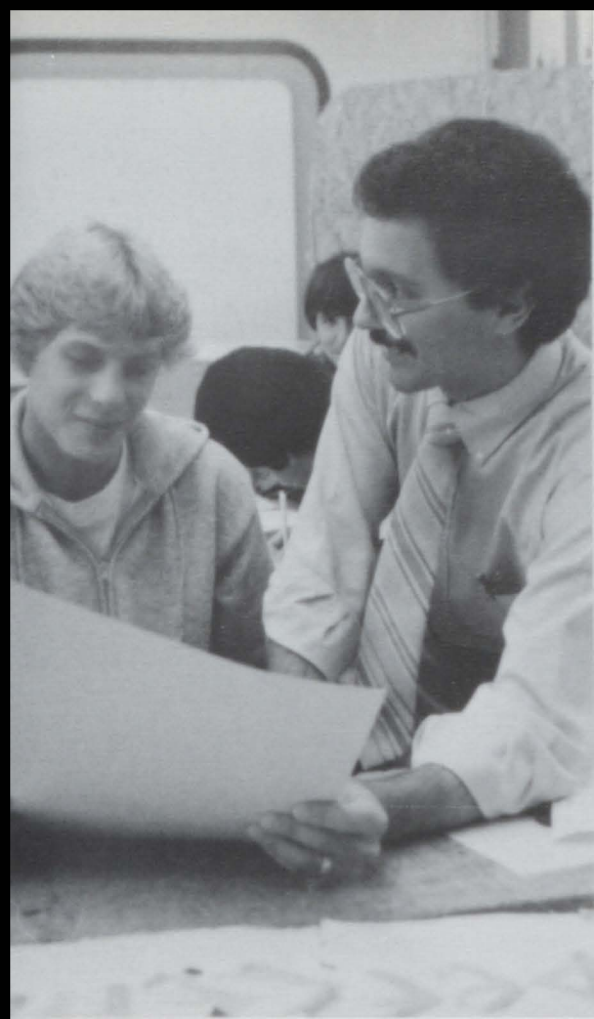

If a student is interested in art Mr. Cilluffo provides a variety of opportunities from sketching to drawing and pottery to painting.

Mr. Bobowski's wood shop students make paper towel holders, bookshelves, bookends, and other small projects. His advanced students get into bigger projects such as desks, tables, cabinets, and even clocks.

Students interested in the metal shop journey over to the Junior High to Mr. Dubois where they learn how to weld and how to work on the drill press and lathe.

Mrs. Radtke teaches home economics. This is where students learn about cooking, sewing, foods and nutrition, health, and baby care.

4. Dale Burlowski has Mr. Clayton Fleming check an angle on his drawing.
5. Tom Gardner and Art Wirgau ask Mr. Dave Dubois if they are working the machine right.
6. Miss Bethany Radtke watches Butch Vandam operate the computer in Home Ec. class.

The Activities

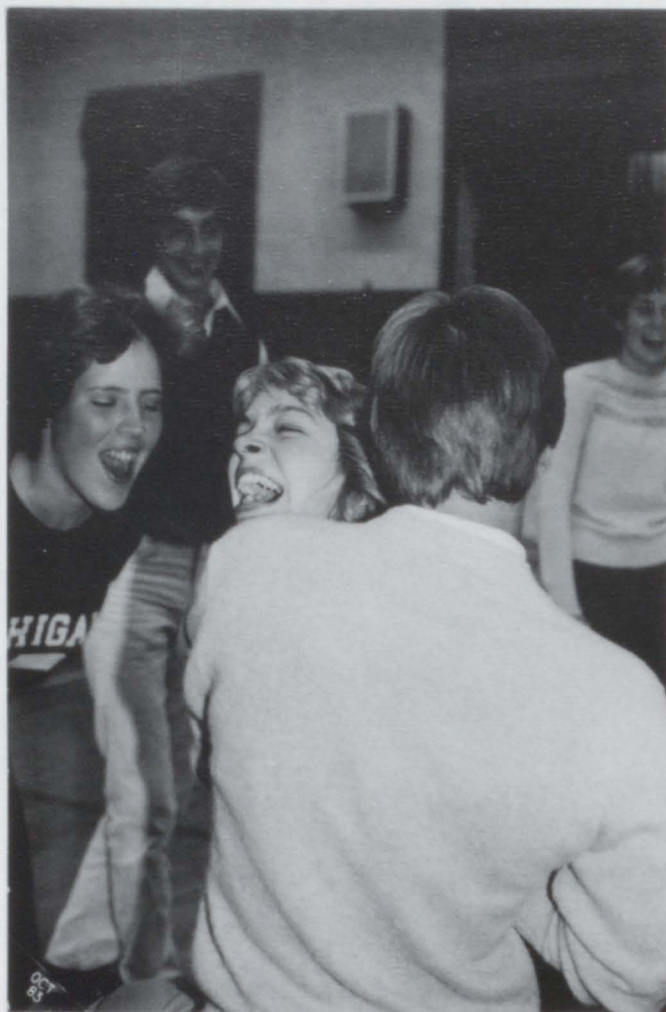

One way that MCHS has proven to be on the way up is with our activities. Just what do these activities include? Everything from the Homecoming Dance to the Mud Bowl!

Activities are a way for us to get rid of some of the tensions that lectures and homework so easily bestow on us. At MCHS we're able to keep our activities fun and interesting by constantly adding new ones — like this year's addition of the computer club, so there's something for everyone.

HOMECOMING

A P P E N I N G S

Homecoming is always a lot of fun,
Even the work of getting floats done!

Spirit week is always a blast,
And the Homecoming assembly gets us out of class!

Everyone watches as the court is crowned,

Then we cheer for our team that is VICTORY BOUND!

The cheerleader's skit starts everything out,

School spirit is what it's all about!

Soon the class contests will begin,

And we all cheer for our team to win!

There's the orange-pass, suitcase run and tug-o-war,

Toilet paper roll and hamburger eating contest with food galore!

At the game they announce the winning float,

The Junior class won with the most votes!

Our football team always tries their best,

We knew the Pioneers would put them to the test!

The fun carries on to the next day,

And when the evening comes we dance the night away!

Every year Homecoming is a lot of fun,

It's always a memorable event for EVERYONE!

Frosty e s t i v i t y

'Twas the season to be jolly — and MCHS students certainly were. Christmas always brings the feeling of Holiday spirit and this year it really did shine.

Mariner's participated in all kinds of yuletide festivities. To begin with, the annual Christmas Parade brought lots of smiles to the crowd as our Snow Court rode through with ear to ear grins, our cheerleaders sang with delight, and our band played the carols we know so well.

The Student Government put up a Christmas tree in the court yard, which was later donated to the Old Newsboys. They also held a Christmas Dance in honor of the Snow Court.

Many classes had parties with festive foods and cups of cheer. The Spanish classes had fiestas with pinatas and the French classes had mardigras. MCHS really had a happy holiday season!

Hard Work Pays off for Varsity

"We won't be beat!" is a sample of the roudiness that the varsity cheerleaders and the Mariner fans displayed at football and basketball games. This roudiness showed how much spirit and pep that Mariners have.

During the summer, the girls went to Pep America cheerleading camp for four days at Oakland University. They left camp with a second place trophy for performance and were voted the most spirited squad at the camp.

Throughout the year the cheerleaders' hard work showed with their spirited pom-pon routines and floor cheers. Homecoming was one of these times. The cheerleaders' hard work paid off as the "Wizard of Id" skit and a special pep assembly were presented.

spirit quads

The junior varsity's 1983-84 year started out great with a successful four day trip to USCA cheerleading camp at Central Michigan University. At camp they earned two second place, a fourth place, and a fifth place ribbon.

Not only at camp, but all throughout the year, valuable experience was gained as they learned new routines and jumps.

The J.V. squad put in a lot of time to make the year a success. They painted spirit signs, sold flowers, helped with the Valentines Day dance and sold Mariner buttons.

With the help of the fans, the J.V. cheerleaders made the Mariners' pride in sports shine through.

For many years, the Marine City High school band has been filling the school with enjoyable music. They have been doing half-time shows, winter and spring concerts, and pep assemblies all under the direction of Miss Jean Bastian. From the opening day of school the band practices very hard for that first concert.

When the weather does not permit them to practice marching they are in the band room playing their classical and pop music selections. Besides the winter and spring concerts they journey to the elementary schools for school concerts, they also go to music festivals such as Lambton and Bluewater.

4. Ninth grader, Nicole Grijalva demonstrates the half-time flag routine.
5. Kris Lester and Kris Tweddle wait for the band's que to perform their routine.

Performing Groups Display Talent

This year's half-time shows were enlightened by the flag girls and the majorettes, with the help of the band. The majorettes performed various routines that were coordinated with the flag girls' performances. Such performances were the musicals Flashdance: What a Feeling and You Can Do Magic.

This special touch during half-time added extra color and spirit. This spirit encouraged fans to become involved in the excitement of the Mariner football games.

The chorus members put forth a great effort to produce a tuneful group.

The daily practices gave valuable preparation for the various concerts and performances. Some of the performances were the Honors Convocation and the Christmas Concert, where they sang such songs as White Christmas and Happy Holidays. The chorus also sang at a Diamond Crystal Salt luncheon.

Miss Schneider discovered and put to use many vocal talents that our students have.

One group that plays a big part in student activities at M.C.H.S. is the Student Government. This representative group is made up of elected students who try to improve school conditions and help the student body. In the fall, the members of this group voluntarily run for office by circulating petitions to get their name on the ballot.

The Student Government achieved many goals this year, including the return of a pop machine to the cafeteria, the addition of a bench to the front hall, and the donation of a tree and one hundred dollars to the Marine City Old Newsboys. The Student Government also sponsored a Christmas dance and organized the Homecoming dance.

Occupational opportunities

Many Marine City students attend the St. Clair Co. Skill Center to give them good training and an edge on the job market when they graduate from high school.

Skill Center is a credited class, and takes up either a morning or afternoon of a school day. Most of the students are offered employment through the Skill Center, and job placement is very good.

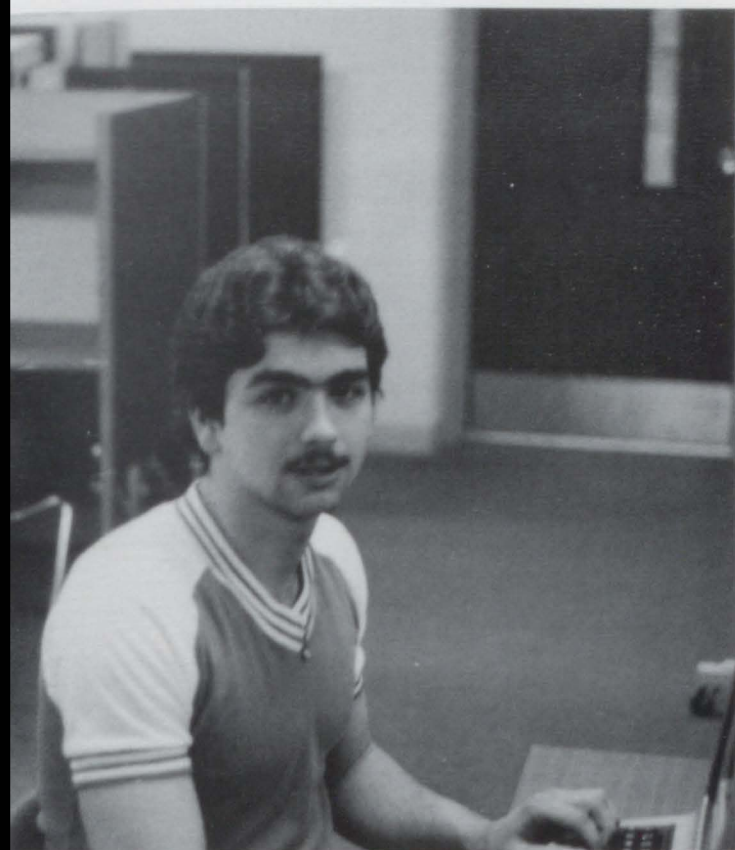

The courses offered include: Auto Mechanics, Business Office Cluster, Electro-Mechanical Cluster, Health Care, and Small Engine Repair.

There are also contracted programs, such as Agriculture and Meat Cutting.

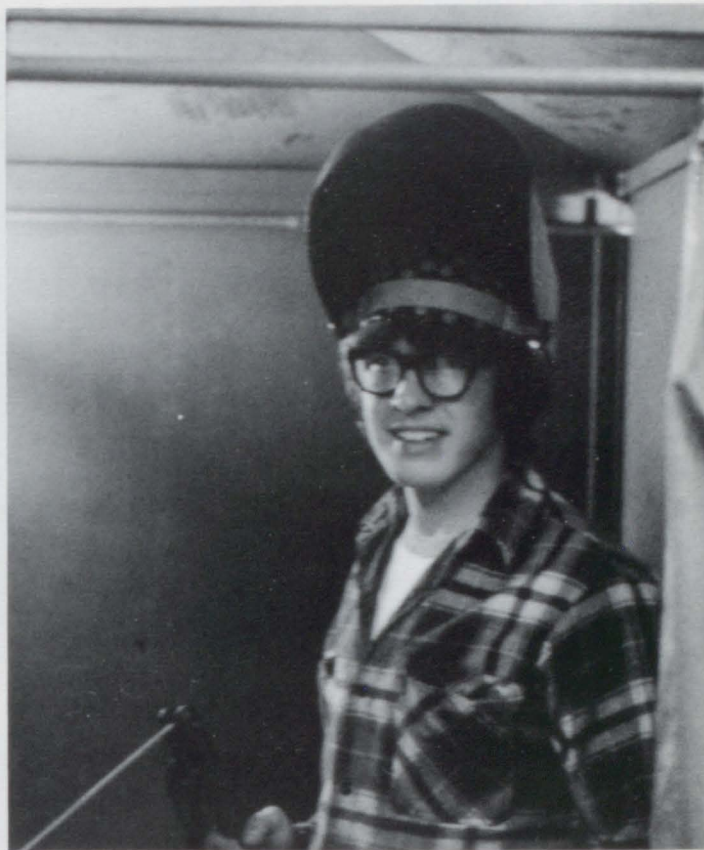

There are about seventy students from Marine City High School attending the Skill Center and every one is gaining experience that will be very helpful in the future.

Terrific Teacher Aides

One of the most popular classes at Marine City High School is Teacher-Aide, even though the class only counts one quarter credit toward graduation. A student not only gets to work with his or her favorite teacher, but has little or no homework. Students spend most of their class time correcting papers, running errands, or helping students. A teacher-aide can also use his or her time to catch up on homework from other classes.

Of course, not everyone can be a teacher-aide. To qualify, you must be a senior, have good grades, and be able to find a teacher that is willing to accept you.

A new addition to the student activities at M.C.H.S. is the Computer Club. This club is made up of students who meet once every one to two weeks. The members learn valuable information about computers, and even play games. The Computer Club showed off some of their skills at Parent-Teacher Conferences last fall on computers and with their robot. The Computer Club also made an attempt at purchasing an Atari video game for the school, by saving Post Cereal labels.

The National Honor Society consists of 14 Seniors who have obtained a 3.25 grade average or higher. Mrs. Christy is this years sponsor. In order to stay members of N.H.S. students have to work hard to maintain their excellent marks, show Leadership among their peers and perform services for the school. Officers are elected in December, and help new members adjust to the Induction Ceremonies.

Getting the Mariner Log out on time every month is the job of the Log Staff. In order to accomplish this feat each member picks a topic he or she thinks would be interesting and follows up on it, by going around getting information, writing a story that can get by the scrutinizing eyes of Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Webb. Publishing it in time to meet the next deadline is the final step.

Front; Bobbi Mason, Sherri Fuller, Diane Waller, Jennifer Emmons, Melanie Plichta, Kim Pfaff, and Lisa Jansons.

Show t u d i e r s

Play production has got to be one of the most enjoyable classes offered at MCHS. One can really be himself, or anyone else in drama. The students learn about acting, and performing, how to give and take criticism, and, most of all, how to work together.

The students did many exciting things in the classroom as well as playing a big part in the Talent Show. That helped in preparing them to overcome "stage fright" for their play "The Wackiest Resort in the East."

Everyone in the class played a part on stage and backstage. The cast was as follows:

Stephanie White - Lori
Darrin Hagel - Gill
Sherri Fuller - Nancy
Peter Hermansen - John
Mickey Daniel - Artie
Karen Meldrum - Karen
Karen Tweddle - Carla
Jenny Schwartz - Julie
Jackie Owens - Sybil
April Dablestien - Gretchen

French and Spanish are the two languages offered here at M.C.H.S., in the Fine Arts Department.

Learning a foreign language is very hard. There is a lot of memory work involved which takes many long hours of study. Much of the work is vocabulary, but there is also sentence structure to learn and memorize.

The students do get a break though. Each class celebrates certain holidays in the way that it would be celebrated in the country they are studying. Also they have Food Parties, in which each student brings a food that would be eaten in that country. Also each class studies folk dance and song of each country.

The Business Office Education Club (BOEC) is a career education organization for students with a career objective in business. This club helps students develop occupational skills, knowledge, and ability, and assists them with career objectives.

BOEC members also compete in regional and state competitions in such areas as Typing, Job Interview, Computer Literacy, and Extemporaneous Speaking. Near the end of the year, an Awards Program is held to honor the winners. BOEC also holds fundraisers, such as the sale of Mariner stickers and mugs.

A new organization at M.C.H.S. is the Service Club. This club is made up of students who volunteer to help the staff make events in school run more smoothly. These students hand out programs, find seating for guests, pick up tickets at football games, and organize the school's outdoor events calendar. The Service Club's sponsor is Mrs. Beth Radtke.

The Competitors

Sportswise, we Mariners have been on the way up for years. In 1932, MCHS had four boys Varsity sports. Since then, we have added 17 Varsity and JV sports for both boys and girls. We have won 1,900 games and we've been to regionals 30 times.

Over the years, competition has become a way of life for us. We have developed coordination and quickness, and we've gained experience. But our most important assets are the fans, our faithful friends who cheer us on through snow storms in November and heat waves in May. Put all of these together and we not only have a winning season, we've got school pride and most of all Spirit – our middle name!

New Offense

Mariners Have Winning Season

The Marine City Mariners started out their season by defeating Lutheran East 7-0. Mark Kammer scored on a 5 yard run, while Gary Mabry kicked the extra point.

St. Clair was rated 5th in the state, but that didn't affect the way the Varsity team played. Todd Haehnle scored on a 29-yard run and Gary Mabry kicked the extra point. In the 2nd half, the Saints came back to win 10-26.

The Mariners then had to face the Capac Chiefs. Todd Haehnle sparked the Mariner offense when he scored on a 2-yard run. Kevin Kammer sneaked in the end zone for another 6 points. Brock Haehnle topped off the victory when he intercepted a pass and ran it in. The final score was Marine City 21, Capac 6.

The Mariners next hosted Richmond. Both teams played very well. Todd Haehnle scored on a 3-yard run and Kevin Parker kicked the winning extra point.

Marine City's last game was against Port Huron Northern. Gary Mabry scored on a 4-yard run. The Mariners came out 10-6.

The victorious Mariners ended their winning season, 6-3.

Tough Team

Mariners Almost Take It

The junior varsity football team started out the season with a 20-0 win over Lutheran East. Coach Rombach had his team ready to win by putting them through a very rough and hard practice. With that victory under their belt, the Mariners suffered their only loss of the season to Marysville. The powerful Mariner offense was spearheaded by quarterback Eric Gunderson who led the team in rushing with 538 yards. Dale Volker was next with 508 yards.

The defensive squad was led by Kevin Dubay who led the team with 22 unassisted and 42 assisted tackles. The Mariners ended the year with a 7-1-1 record leaving the coaches proud.

The Mariners started off to a fast start by winning their first 3 games. Port Huron Northern 36-34, Armada 45-41 and Algonac 40-35. They ended the win streak against Cros-Lex 33-40. The team got fired up the next game and beat Imlay City 56-32. After that the girls started falling apart by losing the next 3 games. At mid season, the Mariners came back strong beating Roseville Brablec in a close game 34-23. That game started a 5 game winning streak. This was ended with a tough game against St. Clair 31-40. The loss ended their confidence when they went to Richmond for a league tournament game. The Mariners came out short 27-43.

They finished the season 9-9 over all, and 6-5 in the league. Gwen King made first team all league, Leann Zweng made second team, and Kim Morris made honorable mention. Morris also lead the Mariners with 72 steals.

Good Records

Mariners Hustle

The Girls Varsity Basketball team had a great season. Posting a 9-9 record, they placed third in the league. Gwen King made first team all league, and Kim Morse made Honorable mention.

Marine City's Cross Country team was full of hustle throughout the year. This year's team won their first meet in three years. It lifted their spirits and made them feel proud.

There was a great amount of spirit on the J.V. football team this year. The J.V. members only lost one game, and that was to Marysville.

The Marine City Golfers put forth all of their efforts into every match, but wasn't enough to pull out a victory.

The Varsity Football team had a very good record, only losing to Marysville, St. Clair, and Cros-Lex. The Mariners ended up the season with a 6-3 record. Todd Haehnle and Steve Scharnweber made All League and All Area awards.

The Varsity Basketball team showed up for practice every day in hopes that this year would be a winning season. Although it didn't really show in the wins and losses, it did in the pride and determination which developed from each and every game.

This years team showed a great amount of improvement, hard work and hustle. This was a main part of a big win against Algonac as they defeated them 74 to 62. Another very close win was against Capac as it came down to the last seconds of the game Steve Baysinger shot a 30 footer and made it to win the game.

The Marine City Junior Varsity basketball team had an outstanding season this year, in fact the best in two years.

According to Coach Warkentien the most exciting games of the season were their three overtime games. The first one was against Marysville which they lost 68 to 63. The other two games were against Richmond and Capac which were both victories 55 to 52, and 62 to 58 respectively.

The team was 3rd in the league with a record of 7 and 5 and 12 and 7 over all. The leading scorer was Darrin Brooks with 213 points, and leading the team in rebounds was Brian Allen with 178 rebounds.

Every player on the team put forth 100% effort to help provide them with a winning season.

The Marine City girl's Varsity Volleyball team had some big and exciting moments. One of the highlights of the season, was when the girls defeated Richmond who had not lost a league match in four years, but the team was ready and defeated them 15-8. Imlay City gave Marine City trouble all season by losing 15-8 and 5-15.

The Varsity team got themselves together and played very well against Marysville, and beat them 16-14 and again defeating Marysville 17-15.

The girls had trouble against teams out of the S.C.A.L., like losing to Lutheran North by a close margin 13-15.

Marine City's junior varsity girls got to a slow start. They lost the season opener to L'anse Creuse 15-12, 0-15 and 7-15. Nothing was going right for the Mariners losing four in a row including a close game to Marysville 13-15, 16-14, and 9-15. At mid season, the girls got fired up, and spiked there way into a three game winning streak. But they cooled off from their hot pace losing two games in a row. Putting alot of hard work during practice, the girls came back strong the next game beating Richmond 15-12, 15-8. Coach Ralston suffered a fractured ankle in all of the excitement during the varsity victory over the Blue Devils. The Mariners finished the season on a winning streak with a 10-9 overall record.

The wrestling team had its best season with an overall record of 8-3 and a perfect 6-0 record in the League taking the League Dual Championship for the first time. They also took 2 second place trophies at Roseville and Yale Invitationals.

The most exciting meet of the year was at Imlay City for the Dual League Championship. They started off to a bad start, as the Junior Varsity lost all 4 matches, but the Varsity got fired up as Steve Bonser (98 pounds) pinned his opponent in the first period to start the blowout, as they beat the Spartans 47-25. Winning were Joe Messina who outscored his opponent, Steve Bonser, Alan Ausmus, Don Davenport, Andy Ausmus, Gary Mabry, Tim Kruesel, and heavy weight Chuck Kammer, who was out weighed by 100 pounds all succeeded in pinning their opponent.

At the SCAL League tournament they placed first with 167 points, compared to Algonac's 137. All League First Team Honors went to Andy Ausmus, Joe Messina, and Gary Mabry.

Hard work and dedication paid off as the Mariners turned a winless season around. Marine City improved its record to 4-8. Senior co-captains Russ Durkee and Karen Meldrum led the improved Mariners.

The swimmers did considerably well breaking 10 of 11 records. Junior Brian Filo in his first season and Senior Karen Meldrum each broke 3 records. The highlight of the season was when Marine City beat St. Clair 85-84.

Diving was a surprise this year. The Mt. Clemens relays, the divers took first place medals competing against six other teams. Junior Chuck Anderson went onto compete at Regionals.

Receiving honors for Marine City was Russ Durkee as most dedicated. Freshmen Bill Bostic was named Most Improved.

Strong teams and dedicated individuals stunned everybody as the Mariners rank high in winter sports.

At the District Tournament the wrestling team placed 10th with 54 points. Only two wrestlers advanced to the Regional competition: captains Gary Mabry and Joe Messina. Messina placed third at 138 weight class, while Mabry took first at 167. At Regionals both Messina and Mabry placed 4th and moved on to the State tournament held at Ferris State college. They returned the second day of the medal round. Mabry took 5th place honors which earned him an all state ranking. Both finished with a 40-8 record. Also coach Gerald Pasquantonio was named coach of the year. Joe Messina and Andy Ausmus made the All Area first team, Gary Mabry made second team.

The Varsity Volleyball team did very well this year and is hoping to continue the success. The biggest highlights of the season was when the varsity team beat Richmond 15-12. Everyone was all excited and jumping up and down, when Coach Ralston broke her ankle.

The J.V. girls Volleyball had a depressing season. They came ahead at the end of the season with a 10-9 record. Tina Yandora was picked the best spiker. Yandora, Lori Prange, Theresa Gardner, and Chris Corbat lead the team with the most serving points.

The J.V. Basketball team had one of its best seasons. They took 3rd in the league. Darrin Brooks lead the team in scoring with 213 points. Brian Allen lead the rebounding with 178 rebounds, and Bill Ameel had 83 assists.

The Varsity basketball team did not have one of its better seasons. This years team struggled through a 7-13 record. Even though the record was not very good, the Mariners managed to uphold a winning attitude and played some outstanding games.

The swim team showed a great deal of improvement. They turned their win loss record around to a 4-8 season. Marine City had many individuals who sparked the team. The divers took first place at the Mt. Clemens relays. Chuck Anderson went on to compete at regional competition. Ten out of eleven school records were broken this year.

The Mariners Varsity girls track team had a very disappointing season. The team opened with a meet against the Algonac Muscrats that ended up in a 86-59 defeat for the Mariners. During the rest of the season the girls luck didn't change.

Performances by team leaders Kim Morse and Karen Meldrum kept the teams spirits high throughout the season despite the teams record. Morse who participated in the long jump, one hundred yard and two-twenty yard dashes was a very tough competitor because of her great speed. Meldrum along with Morse ran the one hundred and two-twenty yard dashes and also took part in the 440 relay.

The rest of the team put a valiant effort into every meet but it just wasn't enough to lead the team to victory. They ended up with a 0 and 9 season.

The Marine City track team started off the season cold, by losing their first two meets.

The Mariners got it together, and defeated Clintondale 88-43, and Imlay City 89-58.

Suffering a big loss against Marysville 40-115, the Mariners came roaring back to win their next 3 meets.

Larry Edwards and Tom Gardner took most of the places in the long distance department. Brian Filo did well in the regional meet in the 100 yard dash. Also Filo scored high in the regional meet in the long jump. Todd Haehnle took 3rd place in the regional meet and just missed placing in the State meet. Ken Dubay and Haehnle also did very well in the shot put event. Ron Wesely took a lot of first places in the regular league meets, but had trouble against teams out of the S.C.A.L.

The Mariners ended the season with a 5-5 overall record and were 3-3 in the league.

Marines Strike Out

Marine City varsity baseball team was expected to be one of the top contenders in the S.C.A.L. The Mariners seemed to be over confident in the early season, losing their first eight games. Marine City finally got their act together beating the Algonac Muskrats 7-6. The Mariners managed to win 4 out of 14 games for the year.

For the first time in two years the varsity took part in the district finals. They won their first game against rival St. Clair in a close match 10-9. Then the Mariners traveled up to Yale to play Richmond, the district champs. They came up shorthanded 1-10.

Outstanding efforts were given by Kevin Kammer & Mickey Daniel with 353 & 335 batting averages. Mike Dubay led the team with an errorless season.

Tough Season

Mariners finish last

The 1983 varsity softball team post a 5-11 regular season record. Coach Grote said, "We as a team gained a lot of experience this year. The girls put in a lot of hard time and effort." Gwen King, Kim Frydel and Jeanne Wesley sparked the Mariners with an above .350 batting average. Brenda Kaatz, Leann Zweng, and Cheryl Recor lead the team with a above .900 fielding percentage.

The Mariners opened the season playing a double header against Port Huron Northern losing the first. They made the second game close, but pulled it out in the late innings to a 10-9 victory. The next week they came back swinging by hammering Cros-Lex 28-5 and Imlay City 20-15. The rest of the season was down hill from there. They finally got it together in the last two games by wiping out Holy Cros 13-2 and Cros-Lex 12-2.

Slow Start

Mariners, Last

Every year an endless amount of Mariners come to school with their rackets and balls, yelling "tennis anyone". Despite their 0-9 season, they kept their attitudes up and the balls bouncing. While progressing into the season, each player improved on his own skills such as backhands, serves, and scores.

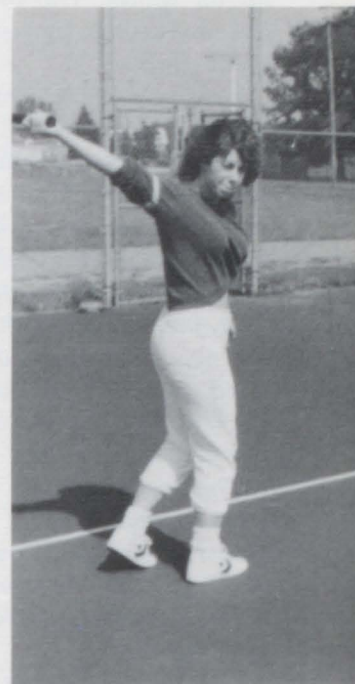

Even though the season was scattered with inconsistency the Mariners were able to pull off some close matches with St. Clair and Marysville.

Coming back from a tough year for all sports. The Mariners surprised everyone by putting forth a great effort.

The boy's track team was not expected to do very well, but overall they ended their season with a 5-5 record. Todd Haehnle had qualified for the regional meet, but all efforts failed to make the State finals.

Struggling through a difficult year, boy's baseball had to adjust to a new system with a new coach. Hard work and perseverance paid off. The Mariners won 3 of their last five games.

The girl's varsity track team went through a rough season. The team leaders Kim Morse and Karen Meldrum kept the spirit high with their outstanding performances in the long jump.

Although the tennis team had a record of 0-9 they showed a lot of effort and hustle throughout the season.

Despite a not so good season girl's softball had a lot of team spirit and experience. The team finished with 3-9 league record.

THE INDIVIDUALS

If there's one group of people who are on their way up at MCHS, it's the underclassmen — and they're proving it every day. Who else could take the Spirit Jug in 95% of the pep assemblies and dare to beat the Seniors in the float competition?

The Underclassmen make up the biggest part of MCHS, because they are here six hours a day. There are no skill center or work experience breaks for them. But it doesn't seem to bother them. Our Sophomores and Juniors are making the most of their last few years of school — and that's a step in the right direction!

Sophomores Spark

Princess Theresa Gardner and Prince Kenny Dubay proudly represent the Sophomore class.

Spirit and Homecoming once again came to Marine City High School. As Sophomores, we had high hopes of winning our first Spirit Week competition, but we had to settle for second. We did great all week beating the Juniors and staying with the Seniors. But when we placed third in the float competition all chances of first were gone.

Despite losing to the Seniors, we still had the satisfaction of beating the Juniors and having a great Homecoming Night.

Being in the high school as Sophomores we felt a big responsibility. There were some changes we had to go through. One of them was picking the class officers: Pres. Brian Allen, Vice Pres. Lisa Jansons, Secretary Michelle Prater, Treasurer Laurie Prange.

Another important factor was drivers training. Will we be able to afford it? It's exciting to come out of drivers training with a permit and only have to wait up to 30 days to get our license. We thought the time would never come.

SPIRIT SHINES

Pooh proudly rides in on classic first place float.

The 1985 class is only one year away from finishing its high school career. We Juniors were very busy all fall encouraging spirit for all sports events. This year we took first place in the float competition, however we did not place better than second in anything during spirit week. We wound up in third place over all. The most important social event all week was the dance, which was enjoyed by everyone.

During P.T. conferences Mrs. Ralston supervised us rocking back and forth. Though it was tiring we relaxed to the sounds of our favorite groups and played all kinds of games such as cards, T.V., Atari. The best part of all was that we brought in and ate all the food we wanted, pizza, pop, chips, and pretzels, etc.

The event raised $650.00 for the Prom.

THE GRADUATES

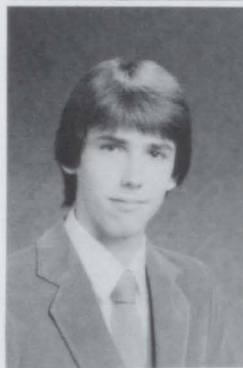

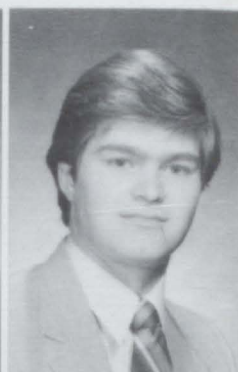

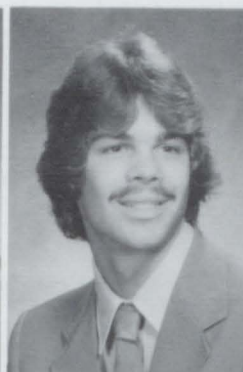

We Seniors started off our last year at MCHS with one goal: to leave our mark. We will never forget high school – football games, victory parties, Prom, and most of all Florida. We wanted to make sure that MCHS didn't forget us either. We lived by our motto, and not a day went by without a memory being made. And now, it's finally our turn to be on the way up. For some of us, this means college, for others, a chance at the working world. But whatever we decide to do, we will always share one thing in common – we were all a part of the proud class of 1984 – a class that left it's mark on MCHS during the three years that it spent here. A class of very special individuals who will be on the way up in the years to come. Here's to them!

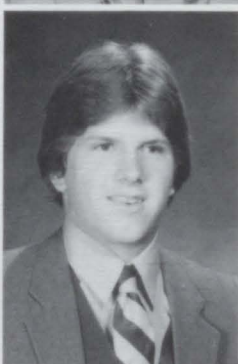

Dwayne Prange and Karen Meldrum smile with joy after being crowned Prince and Princess at the Homecoming assembly.

Looking forward to the Homecoming Dance are Prince Jerry Wagner and Princess Kim Osterman.

For us Seniors, Homecoming represented the beginning of our final year of high school, and we wanted to begin our year with as much class and spirit as possible. We began by choosing some fantastic representatives for our Homecoming Court: Queen Lisa Currier and King Jeff Carpenter, Princesses Karen Meldrum and Kim Osterman, and Princes Dwayne Prange and Jerry Wagner. We then went to the Homecoming Dance with one thing in mind – dancing the night away and getting rowdy!

Before we knew it, the night was over, but the memories of our Senior Homecoming will remain with us for years to come.

Cheryl Recor lends Nancy VanSlambrouck a hand with her collar on Jersey Day.

Is the class of 1984 rowdy or are we rowdy?! If you know the one answer to this question, you must have been a part of Marine City High School's Spirit Week, 1983.

"Rowdy" proved to be the understatement of the year as we strutted through the halls in our modified bed sheets on "Toga Day". Hat day was no exception — our sombreros and mouse ears blew the underclassmen away! But this was only the beginning. The Sophomores turned out to be our main competition, brushing by us on zoo day and button day. We Seniors had to be sure the Sophomore float bit the dust — and we did!

In spite of all this competition, Spirit Week was a lot of fun, and the Class of 1984 proudly carried on the tradition "Seniors Rule!"

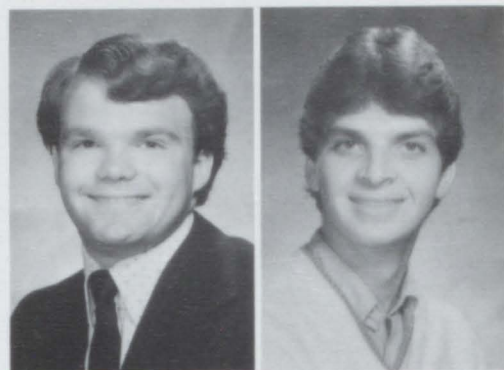

Officers Make Decisions

Hard at work are Senior class officers; President Dwayne Prange, Vice-President Gary Greib, Treasurer Mike Niemic, and Secretary Jeannie Wesley.

"Where will we build our float? What will we build it with? Let's have some ideas – what about class colors, motto, song, flower? Hey – how are we getting to Florida? What about our announcements?"

Obviously, being a class officer is not an easy job. It takes some very responsible people to keep things moving all year long. We seniors chose Dwayne Prange as president, Gary Greib vice-president, Jeannie Wesley, secretary, and Mike Niemic, treasurer. These four dependable people helped us to make our last year at MCHS our best ever. What a team!

Exchange students are an important part of our school. This year we were fortunate to have two, Mika Iwata, and Anja Skibbe.

Mika is from Japan. Because of her interest in the American language and culture, she decided on finishing school in the U.S. Some of the things that Mika likes to do are: reading, and going to football games.

Our other exchange student, Anja originally lived in Germany with her parents, and younger brother. Speaking English so well helped her to understand school easily. Before going back home Anja would like to visit New York City. She would also like to pursue a career in medicine after graduating.

The biggest thrill of being a Senior is going to Florida. From the time we are in ninth grade, we look forward to those days on the beach. This year it was hard to believe how fast the year flew by. Before we knew it, we were on our way – Daytona here we come!

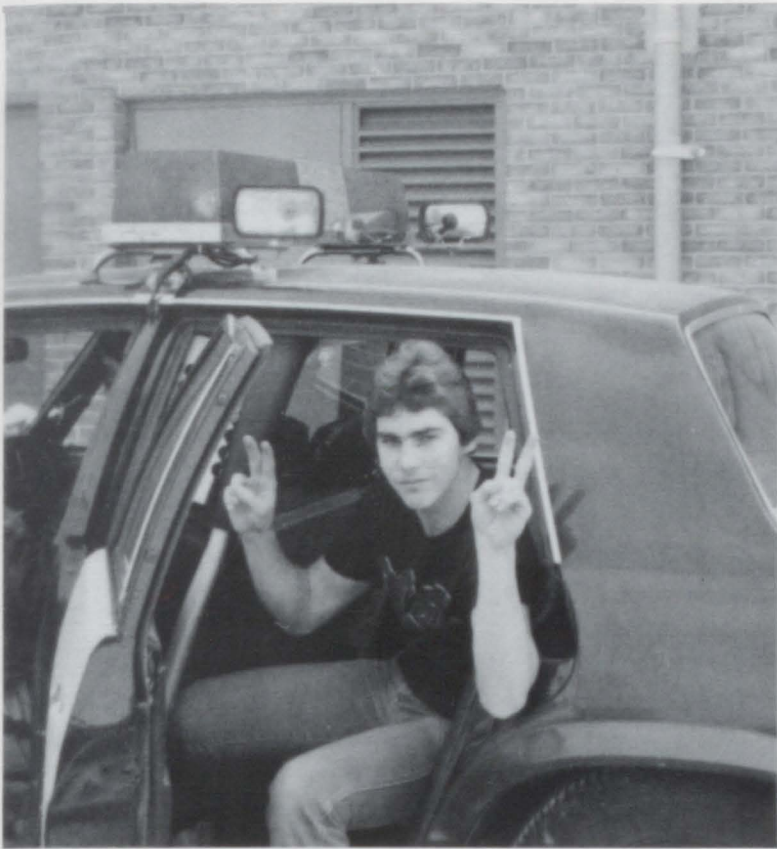

The long bus ride didn't seem so bad after we reached the Plaza Hotel. We knew the fun was just beginning.

We spent an entire week lying in the sun. We visited Disney World and Epcot Center, and everyone's favorite – Wet-N-Wild.

When it was time to leave, we all had the satisfaction of knowing that we would be remembered in Daytona Beach for a long time to come – the Plaza Hotel would never be the same!

Teresa Connin takes a break from typing to dream of days of the beach.

"I'll be back in time for Florida!" Kevin Parker assures his classmates.

The decision of what to do after graduation is on the top of all of our minds as our final year comes to a close. We all want to be successful in whatever we do, but that takes hard work and determination. The knowledge that we gain in high school is very helpful to us in reaching our goals. Over the years we have gained skills in foreign languages, computer programming, and art, as well as in Math, English, and Science. With this kind of a background how can we go wrong?

Tom Hollands expresses his feelings about Chemistry class.

When we began high school three years ago, we never knew how fast the years would go by. Now that our senior year is coming to an end, it's hard to realize that our high school days are almost over, and graduation is a reality.

If we take the time to look back we would see how much we've grown and accomplished in the past three years. We've accomplished some of the goals we've set for ourselves, and we've grown closer to the friends who were always there to help.

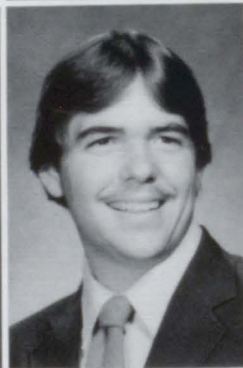

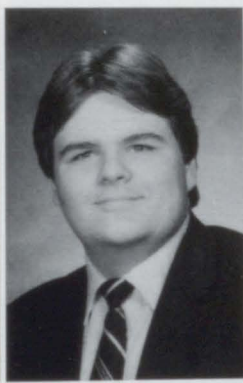

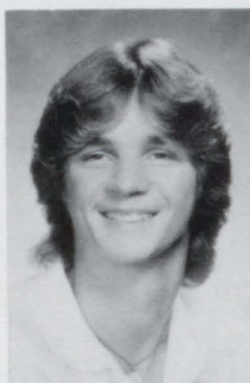

Our last year in high school has meant more to us than we ever would have thought. So to end it we have all the memories of homecomings, proms, parties, football and basketball games, and the love and laughter we've all shared. It will be the end of our togetherness, but the beginning of our new lives.

Getting caught in the act is Andrea Johnson.

Weekends — what would we do without them? After a whole week of assignments, lectures, and homework, even us Seniors need a little time to relax and unwind.

A typical Mariner weekend includes a Friday night football or basketball game, the traditional victory party, a trip to McDonald's, and of course the basic three or four laps around the Idiot Circle.

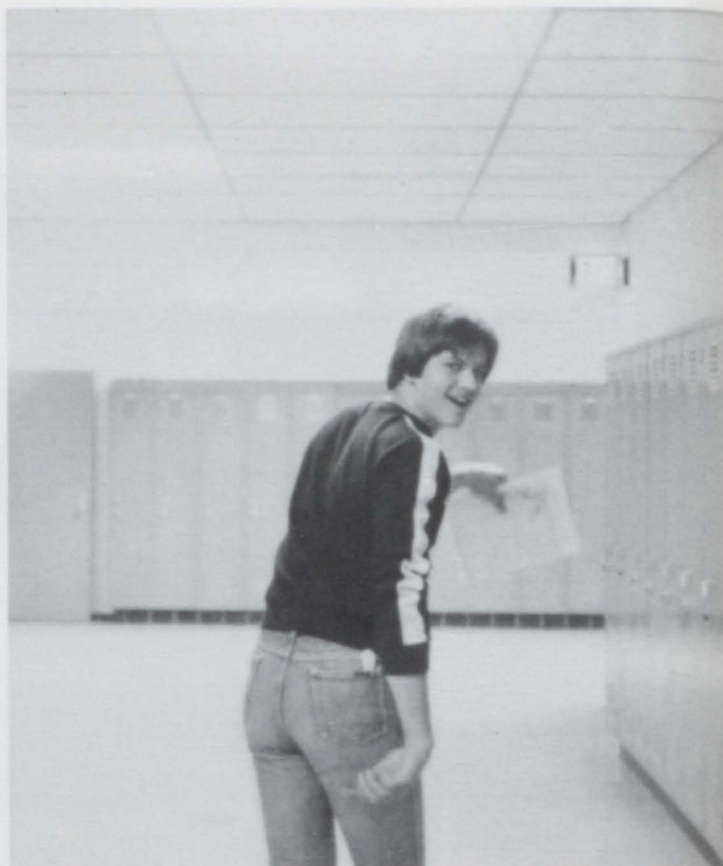

Before we know it, our weekend is over, but we can be sure that those 2 days have made the homework and the lectures worthwhile.

Dave May shows us how to strut our stuff.

THE CONTRIBUTORS

Most people are not aware of the amount of money it takes to produce a yearbook. Sales can no longer cover this rising cost.

Time and again we turn to our local businesses for support, and time and again, they come through for us – not just with their dollars, but in lots of other ways, too.

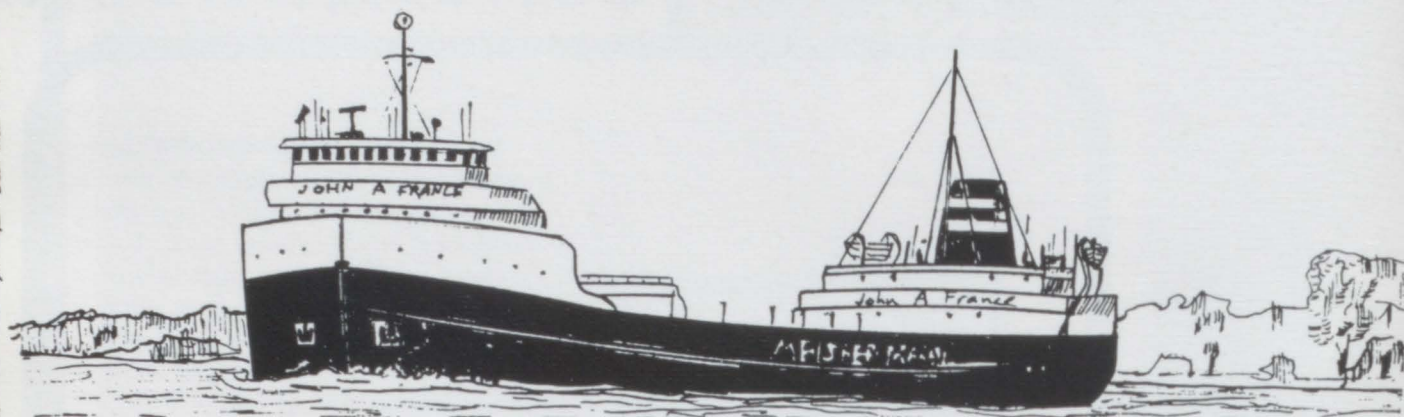

These businesses provide jobs for many students, they donate their products to our dances and assemblies, and they cheer our teams on from the stands.

We would like to thank all of our contributors for their help. We also encourage everyone to support our local businesses, because without them this yearbook would not be possible.

Where Is Everyone?

It Will Never Get Done!

Farewell to "84"

As we look back on the school year it brings back a lot of great memories. Homecoming, ski club, and skip day are just a few.

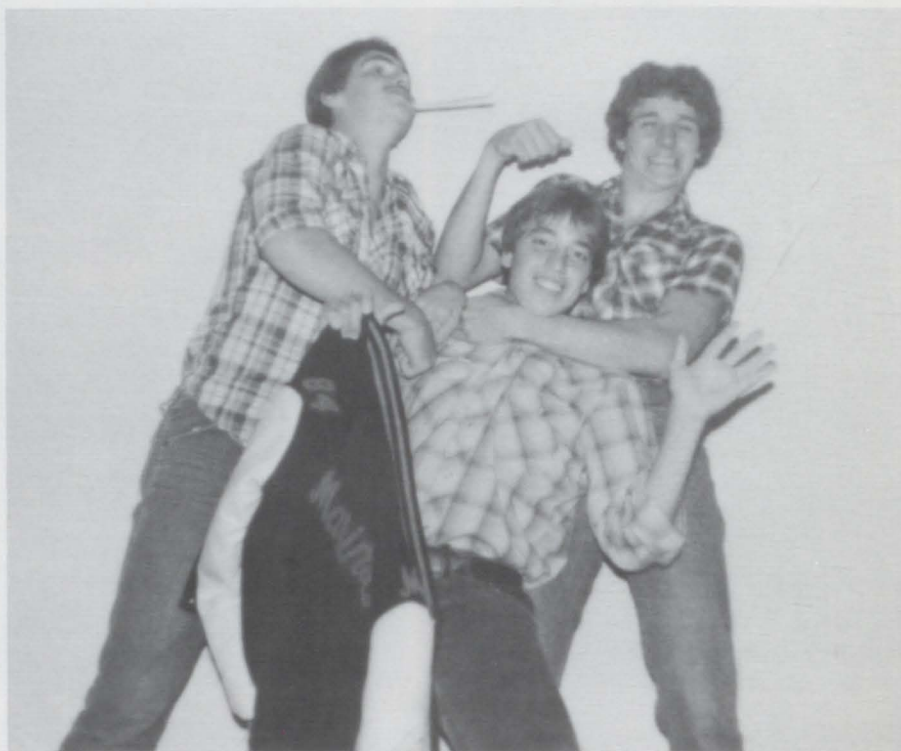

New wave hair-dos, parking permits, Michael Jackson, quarter bounce, The Olympics, Boy George and of course Daytona, were all a part of M.C.H.S. 1983-84 school year.

1. Correcting papers for Mr. Cavis is Lisa Horn.
2. Kim Philips shows spirit as she cheers for the Mariners.
3. Watching the ball circle the rim are Dave Chamberlain, Brock Haehnle, Dan Thomas, and Mark Kammer.
4. Caught by surprise are Tom Hollands and Mike Leonard
5. Mark Kammer and Kevin Parker find that Gary Grieb has a date with both of their girlfriends this weekend.
6. Marie Tranchemongtange and Irma Garcia smile for the camera.
7. Vi Garcia and her parents smile on parents' night.
8. Imitating Rocky is Mike Dubay.
9. Angie Beattie plays teacher for the day.
10. Ray Warner passes the orange to Jeannie Wesley at the Homecoming games.
11. Shelly Sobie is enthusiastic at an M.C. basketball game.
